2019 STANFORD ACHIEVEMENT TESTS, TENTH EDITION ONLINE SYSTEM REQUIREMENTS

The following system specifications will provide the best online testing experience. The specifications which must be met are noted with an asterisk. All other specifications are recommendations.

It is unusual to have any technical issues using the Pearson Browser within the following technical specifications. The keys to a successful test of your system are having the correct OS and browser. Generally, you will not have success using Chrome, Firefox and other less used browsers.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The updated changes in Browsers and Operating Systems are required for security purposes to ensure the integrity of the testing technology protocols. If you receive a report from your System Check that an area needs attention, we recommend you contact a local technician if assistance is needed. Technical support is not available for your computer system by the Academy staff or Ignitia Technical Support for Pearson Testing using the Stanford Achievement Test Online.
